Pearsiption and Pedigree.
Young Chineshale is six years old, dark hay, 164 hands high and weight 1500 pounds. His dam was a cross from the "French and Jasper" stock. He was sired by Young Chineshale Joca, was bred by John Torrence of Scarbore, near Toronto, Canada. His sire, old Clydesdale Jock, was bred by John Robb, of New Monkland, near Glasgow, Scotland. He is a perfect type of the famous "Clydesdale" stock; his progenitors, both male and female, being among the most noted prize takers of Scotland. Description and Pedigree.

I have also a fine, large sized Maltese Jack. Ten dollars the season, payable in advance.

My stable also contains a Lexingtor stallion, good size, which I especially recommend for saddle stock. Ten dol lars the season, payable in advance.
